

Hanna Tsao is from Hawthorne, New Jersey. She graduated from SLK Ballet School in June 2018. During her time at SLK Ballet, she was chosen to train at Masters of Ballet (Artistic Director; Elena Glurdjidze) and Central School of Ballet in London, England as part of SLK Ballet's exchange program as well as the summer school at Royal Danish Ballet on scholarship. She has guest performed for Long Island Ballet Theatre in their production of "The Nutcracker" in the roles of Snow Queen, Dew Drop Fairy, Chinese Soloist, Marzipan and Flowers and for numerous other companies in New York City including; Indelible Dance Company, Dances Patrelle and The 36th Annual Battery Dance Festival. She has also performed in many hospitals, including New York Presbyterian, Mt. Sinai and Slone-Kettering Cancer Center and New York City elementary schools as Chevalier Ballet's outreach program. Hanna was recently on tour with Chevalier Ballet in Yorkshire, England performing for junior and high schools. This is her fifth season with Chevalier Ballet and has performed many roles with the company including; La Vivandière, Shades Pas de Trois from La Bayadère, Pas de Trois from Swan Lake and Odalisque Pas de Trois from Le Corsaire. She has also danced in "A Dancers' Christmas" an annual favorite in New York City and the "Beatles Ballet" Tour traveling throughout New York State, Vermont and most recently the UK with 'Beatlemania'.